The Duke d'Atri, Vicar-General of Abruzzo, having sent an Account to our Viceroy, That a considerable Number of Malecontents have taken up Arms, and committed some Disorders between Amatrice and Civita-Ducale, a Detachment of 300 Horse and Dragoons has been sent him from the Garisons of Capua and Gaeta, to enable him to disperse them. The 13th Instant at Night we had a Shock of an Earthquake, but it did little or no Damage.

Rome, January 22. The Pope has appointed a Consistorial Congregation to meet the 27th Instant, in order to a further examining of the Matters in dispute touching the Election of a Bishop of Munster, and to come to a final Resolution therein. Cardinal Grimani, who manages the Emperor's Concerns at this Court, has had several Audiences of the Pope this Week, in relation to this Affair, and to the Contributions demanded by the Imperialists of the Subjects of the Ecclesiastical State. Signior Nani, who arrived here lately from Venice, with the Character of Ambassador from that Republick, has quitted this Place; the Occasion whereof is as follows: It was usual for the College of Cardinals to send a Compliment to every Ambassador upon his Arrival here; but the Congregation for settling the Ceremonial lately made an Order, That before the College sent any such Compliment, the Ambassador should first notify his Arrival; with which the Venetian Ambassador refuses to comply, as being an Innovation; and he is retired to Frascati, where he intends to remain till this Matter be adjusted. The Pope has caused a Placart to be published, forbidding all Plays, Masquerades, and other usual Diversions, during the Carnival, as being improper, at this time that the greatest part of Christendom is engaged in War.

A Courier whom the Pope had sent to Vienna, with Letters to the Emperor concerning the Contributions demanded of the Ecclesiastical State, passed by here 4 Days ago in his Return to Rome. The Garison of Cremona lately made a second Sally, but with the same ill Success as the first, having been again repulsed with considerable Loss. The Imperialists are preparing Materials for laying a Bridge over the Oglio at Viadana. They are erecting a great Magazine of Hay and Corn at Canda. The Bishops of Warmia and Posen are come hither from Rome, in their way to Poland.

Milan, Jan. 29. Prince Eugene returned hither yesterday from Turin. Count Schlick is lately arrived from Vienna, and has brought a considerable Sum of Money to pay the Imperial Troops in these Parts. The Attack of our Castle will shortly be begun. The Enemy's Forces which are in Garison there made a Sally the 27th Instant, early in the Morning, and set fire to two or three Houses in our Suburbs; but were soon obliged to retire by the Imperial Troops posted on that side. An Order is published for suppressing several new Offices erected here by the Duke of Anjou's Authority, whilst this Dutchy was in his possession. The Enemy's Garisons at Mantua and Cremona are so streightened, that they have been obliged to kill part of their Horses to make their Provisions of Hay and Forage hold out, so as to subsist the rest.

Warsaw, Jan. 25. A Detachment of the Muscovite Troops, commanded by General Henskin, attacked lately near Blonien a strong Party of the Confederated Forces of Poland, and put them to flight: After which, this Detachment came to Praagh, on the other side of the Weisell; and their Commander has sent a Message to our Magistrates, requiring them to supply him with a sufficient Quantity of Provisions, both for the Men and Horses, to subsist 10000 Horse during a whole Month. The Czar of Muscovy having been attended at Zolkiow by the Primate, and others of the Nobility of Poland who are in the same Interest, is gone with them to Lemberg, intending to reside there while the Assembly of the Nobility is sitting, which the Primate has summoned to meet in that Place the 7th of next Month.

Our Court have Assurances given them, That upon the Junction of these two Armies, the Inhabitants of several Provinces of the Lower Hungary will take up Arms against the Malecontents, who, by their Assistance, will, it's hoped, be obliged to come to an Accommodation. Count Budiani continues with a Body of Malecontents between Stain and Oedenbourg. The Emperor has given the Regiment of which the late Count de Frise was Colonel to Major-General Count Lessenholtz, and has made Colonel Wilfon Governor of Arath in his room. Prince Maximilian of Hanoover, the Prince of Hesse-Darmstadt, and General Heister, are said to be Competitors for the Government of Raab, which is worth about 20000 Florins a Year, and was enjoyed by the late Prince Lewis of Baden.
